

ALN, Takataka ni Mali Partner to Drive Circular Economy and Sustainable Waste Management in East Africa

We are proud to announce our partnership with Takataka ni Mali, focused on promoting effective waste management and advancing circular economy models across Kenya and the wider East Africa. A key initiative under this collaboration is the formation of the East Africa Waste Management Coalition, aimed at catalysing investment, driving innovation, and unlocking business opportunities in sustainable waste management.