

ALN Tanzania Strengthens Corporate Expertise with New Director Chris Green

ALN Tanzania, the country's leading corporate and commercial law firm, is delighted to announce the appointment of Chris Green as a Director. With extensive experience advising local, regional, and multinational clients on complex domestic and cross-border M&A transactions across Sub-Saharan Africa, Chris brings invaluable expertise and insight to the firm. His deep knowledge of global and African markets reinforces ALN Tanzania's commitment to unlocking value for clients and supporting their investments across the continent.