

Building a Sustainable Future for Kenya's Real Estate

Looking back at ALN Kenya's history, they have positioned themselves and their clients to make a lasting impact by helping them capitalise on the numerous sector opportunities while setting the standard in their industry. The firm continues to be a vital part of helping clients like Acorn Holdings to deliver high-quality purpose-built student accommodation while at the same time building and shaping the real estate industry.