

Building Africa's Future: Shaping Growth Opportunities for Real Estate Investment

Africa's population growth continues to soar, and it is expected to reach approximately 2.5 billion by 2050, according to the United Nations, meaning the continent will be home to 25 percent of the global population.