

Championing Africa as a Leading Investment Destination

From their humble beginnings in 1954 to becoming East Africa's largest full-service law firm, ALN Kenya has remained steadfast in its commitment to advancing business and creating a gateway for investment into Kenya and the region. Their journey with leading private investment firms including Helios Investment Partners whose deep understanding of the African investment environment continues to bridge international capital and African enterprise.