

Our Pro bono Impact 2022 / 2023

We live in a world of potent inequalities where access to justice is a struggle to achieve for everyone. This is a challenge not only for individuals but also for community groups, not-for-profit organisations and individuals. As one of Kenya's leading law firms, we believe it is our responsibility to help those without access to legal services.