

Transforming East Africa's Digital Landscape

ALN Kenya's rich history has been recognised by their trusted advice that continues to help clients including SEACOM navigate and explore the vast opportunities across Kenya and the region. Together they have advanced and charted the course for Africa's digital transformation expanding African technology, media and communications which continues to impact all sectors of the African economy.