Background

David is a highly motivated, ambitious Advocate who strives for excellence in his work and enthusiastically encourages and supports others through teamwork to achieve/accomplish common objectives to the best extent possible.

He is a business law practitioner with specialisation in corporate and commercial law practice, contracts, banking law and finance, securities, investment, tax, Intellectual property prosecution and enforcement, employment, and debt recovery.

His experience includes assisting local and international clients, local and multinational companies in merger & acquisition transactions, and corporate and projects financing through syndicated loans or other financing arrangements. He is involved in conducting legal due diligence and legal audit and advising in investment deals, including private equity and other investment vehicles or structures.

He assists with the incorporation of companies, corporate governance and regulatory compliance, and restructuring and insolvency management. He also provides company secretarial services and has been a member of a number of boards of directors.

He advises local and foreign clients (tax residents and non-residents) on tax compliance and advises on labour law compliance and labour/employment dispute resolution.

David assists or represents clients in court proceedings (litigation) and alternative dispute resolution (ADR), including arbitration, conciliation, mediation and negotiation.
