Background

Gbenga is Of Counsel of Aluko & Oyeboode (“the Firm”), one of the largest integrated law firms in Nigeria with three offices in Lagos, Abuja and Port Harcourt. The Firm provides a comprehensive range of specialist legal services to a highly diversified clientele, including top-tier Nigerian, international and multinational clients. In his capacity as the Of-Counsel, he provides an advisory role to the Firm’s management and on specific transactions. He has over 35 years of experience in legal practices with expertise in the following practice areas:

- Energy and natural resources
- Power projects
- Foreign investment and privatisation
- Telecommunications
- Project finance
- Aviation

Gbenga has been described by IFLR 1000, the guide to the world’s leading financial law firms, as one of Nigeria’s most prominent lawyers and by Chambers Global as a “consummate deal maker who has received plaudits from clients and peers alike for his corporate expertise”. The Legal 500 referred to Gbenga Oyeboode as a charming and highly professional practitioner offering the highest level of legal services.

According to Chambers Global, Gbenga Oyeboode is “a specialist in corporate commercial work and is particularly knowledgeable with regard to the telecoms market.” Chambers Global ranked him in Banking and Finance, Corporate and Commercial, and Project & Energy 2022 and 2021 editions as a Senior Statespeople and described him as “He is very well respected and influential.”

Gbenga is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (UK) (FCIArb) and the Nigerian Leadership Initiative (NLI). He was actively involved as a Council Member of the IBA’s Section on Energy, Environment, Natural Resources and Infrastructure Law (SEERIL).

He was Chairman of the Section of Business Law of the Nigerian Bar Association (NBA-SBL) 2012 – 2014. As Chairman of NBA-SBL, he was instrumental in reviving the activities of the NBA-SBL after a two-year lull and re-established the SBL to become the foremost Section of the Nigerian Bar Association.

Gbenga was conferred with one of Nigeria's highest honours, the Member of the Order of the Federal Republic of Nigeria (MFR) in the year 2000. He was also conferred with the Belgian Royal Honour of 'Knight of the Order of Leopold' in 2007.

Gbenga is the Chairman of Okomu Oil Palm Company, PZ Cussons Nigeria, CFAO Nigeria and Teach for Nigeria and the Vice Chairman Teach for All, New York. He is a member of the board of directors for Nestle Nigeria, Lafarge Africa, DHL Aviation Nigeria and Socfinaf S.A, listed on the Luxemburg Stock Exchange. He is a Director of Jazz at the Lincoln Centre, New York, and the African Philanthropy Forum. He serves as a Member of the Board of Trustees of Carnegie Hall, Ford Foundation, and The African Center, New York.

Gbenga was the Chairman of the Board of Directors of Access Bank from 2005 – 2015 and served on the Board of Directors of MTN Nigeria 2001-2019. Further, he was the President of the Nigerian-Belgian Chamber of Commerce from 2007 – 2015.

He sits on the Global Advisory Council of the African Leadership Academy Johannesburg and also on the Africa Advisory Committee of the Johannesburg Stock Exchange. He is also a member of the INSEAD Directors Program Corporate Governance Network (IDPN) and a member of the Academy of the University of Pennsylvania, USA.

He supports various charitable causes and specifically has granted scholarships and supports various educational institutions, including the Faculty of Law, Ekiti State University, Ado-Ekiti, the Afe Babalola University, Ado-Ekiti, the African Leadership Academy (ALA) Johannesburg, SA, the University of Pennsylvania Law School, Philadelphia, USA and the Children's Development Centre, Lagos.
