Background

Natalia is a Greek-qualified international arbitration specialist based in Dubai. Natalia represents private parties and states in international dispute settlement. Her experience covers commercial and investment-treaty arbitrations in the oil and gas, financial services, mining, gaming, and life sciences sectors under a variety of arbitration rules including ICC, UNCITRAL, LCIA, and ICSID. Natalia also advises governments on issues of public international law.

Natalia holds an LL.M. in International Dispute Settlement (MIDS) from the University of Geneva and the Graduate Institute of International Development Studies, and an LL.M. in Public International Law, and an LL.B. from the University of Athens. She also has a Minor Degree in Finance.

Prior to Anjarwalla Collins & Haidermota, Natalia gained experience in international arbitration and public international law at leading law firms including Sidley Austin LLP (Geneva), Three Crowns LLP (Paris), and Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan (Zurich).

Natalia's activities include teaching at the ELSA Summer School on International Investment Law, speaking at conferences, including about "International Investment Law & New Technologies" in The Netherlands, and publishing articles on various topics around international commercial and investment-treaty arbitration.
